

Spotlight On Justice

MEDICAL MALPRACTICE INSURANCE REFORM IS THE BEST WAY TO HELP DOCTORS

The Illinois Division of Insurance says that an insurance reform law, which required companies to publicly file rate-related information as well as loss and claims-related data, made it possible for companies to set premium rates that were competitive with other companies. The impact was significant: expanded coverage and lower premiums for doctors.

Source:

News Release, "Illinois Department of Insurance Encourages Insurers to Comply with 2005 Medical Malpractice Reforms; Department observed increased competition, 10% decrease in premium paid since 2005 reforms," February 20, 2010.

Center for Justice & Democracy

90 Broad Street, Suite 401
New York, NY 10004
212.267.2801
www.centerjd.org

